DAYTON, Ohio, October 24, 1974 --- "Dialogue '74," a business-industry-education forum will be presented at the University of Dayton, Tuesday, October 29, co-sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) and UD's School of Business.

Donald A. Gaudion, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Sybron Corporation, will address the forum of NAM members, UD faculty and students, as well as students and faculty from Sinclair Community College and Wright State University.

Following a continental breakfast in the Kennedy Union, UD President, Reverend Raymond A. Roesch, S.M. will introduce David Meeker, President of Hobart Manufacturing, who will, in turn, introduce Donald Gaudion. Gaudion, Chairman of NAM, will then open discussion of topics and issues facing business and industry today.

The Forum will conclude about 11:00 A.M. when Gaudion will speak with the news media before joining a reception at the Racquet Club.

Gaudion, who received his MBA with High Distinction from Harvard in 1938 was Assistant to Vice President in Charge of Sales at Eastman Kodak before joining the Sybron Corporation.

Sybron Corporation manufactures and sells on a worldwide basis a diversified line of equipment and supplies in four principal product areas: professional health products for physicians, dentists, hospitals and laboratories; instrumentation systems and equipment; process equipment and water and waste treatment equipment; and specialty chemicals. Worldwide sales in 1972 were over $408 million. The Company has headquarters in Rochester, New York where five of its more than 60 divisions and subsidiaries are located--Castle, Nalge, Pfaudler, Ritter and Taylor. Sybron has more than 20,000 shareholders and 15,000 employees with over 6,000 located outside the United States.

Gaudion is also on the Board of Directors and/or Trustees of three banks and four major industries.
